

Commune with the Spirits

Expose yourself to the Vortex and stare into the Untempered Schism or meditate in The Caldera

When you stare unblinking into the Vortex looking for forbidden or forgotten knowledge, roll:

- On a 10+, You are shown dark visions that lend you insight. Ask the Spirits one question, and the Spirits will answer. The Grandfather will ask you one question from catechism.
- On a 7-9, Ask, and the Spirits will answer, but they are hungry. The Grandfather will ask 2 questions from catechism.

Acting on the answer provided gives you either a potent or an advantaged roll once.

As a Citizen, when you stare unblinking into the Vortex looking for your connection to The City of the Saved, roll:

- On a 10+, The Spirits favour you with their disdain
- On a 7-9, The Spirits are hungry. The Grandfather will ask a question from catechism.

On a Hit you receive 1 hold for your Vitem move. On a Miss, you have lost time while communing, and all of your Downtime actions are used.
