Description	It takes 1 turn per difference in shapes to change. While changing shape, you are a vulnerable amorphous blob. If your current shape is damaged, you must pay 1 additional point for each health point of damage.	Heal INT health	The target's speeds are reduced to half, rounded down.	The target may not change to any other shape that is not in their current class. i.e. if they are currently a mammal, they may only change into other mammals.	Move counter immediately to a chosen map hex within Line of Sight that contains no other counters.
