

The Law

Before a judge continues their street patrol or current investigation, they must sentence the perp to a period of time in the cubes. The arresting judge's word is final for sentencing, subject to further evidence being uncovered at a later date and many crimes have variable sentences permitted, allowing a judge to use their own discretion and still remain within the Law. However, a judge who is consistently too harsh or too lenient may well be investigated themselves and disciplined.

The guide below may be used by players to determine a suitable sentence for any perp they arrest, be it time spent in an iso-cube, a credit fine (paid directly to the judge's Sector House) or some other punishment. Players are free to consult this list at any time during play in order to access this guide, or they may make a Knowledge (law) check at DC 5 in order to recall a suitable sentence for any crime.

Exceptions to Sentencing

- Criminal activity as the result of insanity: Indefinite psycho-cube observation until mental state is determined.
- Homicidal or compulsive violent behaviour, psychotic or sociopathic tendencies: Indefinite psycho-cube incarceration with occasional behavioural modifying brain surgery.
- Stress related violent outbursts (Future Shock Syndrome): Indefinite psycho-cube observation with counselling and rehabilitation.
- Obsessive/compulsive non-violent criminal behaviour (kleptomania, spontaneous confession, 'petty crime' addiction): Iso-cube incarceration. A citizen completely unable to behave and conform will be sentenced to a compulsory frontal lobotomy.

7. Illegal bionic or cybernetic implants: 3 - 15 years
8. Illegal cloning: 5 - 20 years

Code 9: Criminal Damage

Expressions of pent-up rage, as well as general impatience with ineffective equipment, are treated swiftly and sternly. Of particular annoyance to the city and the Justice Department, is the act of GÇÿscrawling' - tagging public spaces with painted graffiti. Following the Marlon GÇÿChopper' Shakespeare affair, scrawling has diminished but occasionally flares again, usually in response to some perceived slight or social miscarriage. Section Offence: Sentence

1. Robot Smashing: 5-15 years
2. Criminal Damage: 6 months-8/10 years
3. Vandalism: 3 months-6/8 years
4. Scrawling: 1 month-1 year

Code 10: Illegal Imprisonment & Abduction

The law is simple: abduct and imprison someone and you can expect to be imprisoned yourself. For all the lack of general liberty in Mega-City One, forcibly holding someone against their will (unless the Judges do it) is a major crime - as reflected in the sentencing. One particularly abhorrent crime is the practice of Chump Dumping. Here, aliens are conned into visiting Earth (and Mega-City One) as tourists or refugees, paying extortionate sums to the runners who organise the passage. In deep space, the passenger pod of the spaceship is jettisoned, without life support, leaving the poor occupants to die alone whilst the perps pocket the transit fee. Chump Dumping tends to be controlled by the Mob gangs and other organised crime groups. Section Offence: Sentence

1. Kidnap (abduction with ransom demand): 30 years-Life
2. Chump Dumping: 30 years-Life
3. Abduction: 15 years-Life
4. False imprisonment: 10-30 years
5. Hostage taking: 10-20 years
6. Incitement to kidnapping: 5-10 years

Code 11: Civic & Financial

Water-tight computerised accounting and financial regulation, in the wake of the infamous GÇÿCredit Crunch' of the very early 21st Century, means that most major financial transactions are controlled by incorruptible AIs and computerised systems that do not know the meaning of greed and take the most sensible fiscal decisions based on long-term planning, calculated risk and close observance of previous recessions and depressions. That said, some citizens can get away with relatively low-levels of financial malfeasance, such as minor counts of tax evasion, but financial GÇÿwhite collar' crimes tend to be few and far between. Gambling, illegal in Mega-City One since its formation, falls into Code 11. But betting on the outcome of all manner of activities (rat fights, robot fights, dog fights, mutant fights, skyboard races, the vicious Mega-City 5000 bike race) still happens from slums, through shuggy halls to the penthouses of the rich and famous. The Mob controls a lot of illegal gambling through their devious GÇÿnumbers rackets' but often gambling is ad-hoc and opportunistic. TV game shows are exempt from the gambling laws but only because extensive and complex charters exist to ensure that pure chance and controls on the sums waged are firmly in place.

Section Offence: Sentence

1. Bigamy: 1 year per count
2. Unlicensed adoption: 1 year per count
3. Gambling: 1-5 years
4. Tax Evasion: Cr. 5,000 fine-8 years
5. Blackmail: 2-30 years

Code 12: Technology

Any advances in technology leads to an exploitation of that technology for criminal ends, no matter what the safeguards. Most technology crime is covered under other codes, so Code 12 deals with certain specific crimes, such as tampering with robots, building WMDs and computer hacking. Deliberately planting aggression chips in robots, thereby breaking their conditioning to serve and obey humans, is viewed with special severity following the Robot Wars. Section Offence: Sentence

1. Implanting aggression chips into robots: 5/15-20/30 years
2. Illegal possession or trading of war or assassin droids: 3-15 years
3. Unauthorised construction of weapons of mass destruction: 10 years-Life
4. Computer hacking: 3-18 years

Code 13: Public Order

Section Offence: Sentence

1. Participating in block war: 15 years - Life
2. Rioting: 3 - 15 years
3. Agitating or rabble rousing: 1 - 15 years
4. Obstruction: 3 months - 2 years
5. Unlawful assembly: 3 months - 1 year
6. Drunk and disorderly: compulsory rehabilitation - 2 years

7. Disorderly conduct: 6 months - 2 years
