The Master Lists of Limitations:

<http://www.globalguardians.com/master%20lists/>

Hosted by the Global Guardians PBEM, this is a vast archive of custom Physical, Mental and Social Limitations created by HERO gamers. If you've wanted to give your character an unusual Disadvantage but weren't sure how it should work or what it would cost, chances are you'll find something useful here.

Hero Games Product List:

<http://rhinobunny.com/derek/champio...ogameslist.html>

Derek Hiemforth has compiled this virtually complete list of all books, modules, and e-books that contain HERO System material, from every edition, by every publisher. Thorough and well-organized, this list is a must for the completist collector.

Random Character Generator:

http://www.trimira.com/hero_stuff/hero_stuff.html

Fellow board member niakki has created this wonderful generator for Champions and FH characters.

Very flexible and customizable, just the thing for whipping up an NPC on short notice, or giving a design-challenged player a PC to work with.

The Great Net Book of Real Heroes:

<http://www.sysabend.org/champions/gnborh/index.html>

A huge but coherently organized collection of comic-book and other characters from multiple sources, converted to HERO System stats. Submitted by many authors, often resulting in multiple interpretations of the same character. Many of these are still in 4E HERO, but are easy enough to update.
