

Drinks

By Cancer (original post)

When you order coffee or tea, either in the restaurant or room service, it is always very, very strong. But there's a tang, or some funny undertaste, in both of them ... you can't be certain, because the stuff is almost black, but ... it reminds you of something, something you can't quite place, but the associations called up out of deep memory make you uncomfortable, for no reason you can quite put your finger on.
